Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Larry Kuszmaul, who will be retiring from the South Dakota Bureau of Information and Telecommunications; and,

Whereas, Larry has provided exceptional service to the agencies and personnel in state government for over 40 years; and,

Whereas, Larry has assisted co-workers by providing valuable training, information, and technical support while consistently exhibiting the highest degree of professionalism, responsibility, fairness, tact, and integrity tempered with a sense of humor; and,

Whereas, Larry has been actively involved with South Dakota youth in a variety of activities; and,

Whereas, Larry will enjoy spending his retirement with his son Troy, his daughter Keri, and his grandchildren DJ, Jonah, Sidney, Devan, and Caleb; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 8, 2014, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in offering him best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fourteen.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
